The Sabres have scored first. The Sabres actually have a lead,nfl team jerseys!

From Kevin Allen of USA Today,sports jersey, who introduced Kelley at the Hockey Hall of Fame induction in 2004: Using some vernacular from the sport Kelley covered,vintage nhl jersey, he was a power forward in the sportswriting world. He had top-line talent,basketball uniforms, plus the toughness and grit that not everyone has in their writing. He was an old-school sportswriter,mlb jersey shirts, someone who liked the reporting maybe even more than the writing. He could smell a lie,best sports jerseys,adidas soccer jerseys, and he pushed aggressively for the truth as anyone in this business.

Jim,create your own baseball jersey, right to the end you got the story right. The rest of us are just trying to measure up.

From Jerry Sullivan: "He was a hero to me,football jersey font, the older brother I never had. We had great times covering the Stanley Cup playoffs. Jim was amazing on deadline. He'd be so calm,create basketball jersey,Redskins Jerseys, sitting there crafting two columns at once. I'd be near panic,nfl new uniforms, fretting over a simple sidebar,basketball jersey sizing, wondering what the angle would be.

Kell would smile and say,new nike nfl uniforms, "I think I'll write something off the game." It was his way of telling me to relax and let the action play out. Watching him made me a better writer. His game columns were amazing. He had a gift for finding the essence of the contest and bringing it home to the reader.

Clarke MacArthur potted Derek Roy's rebound at 7:59 of the first period tonight to put Buffalo in front of the Montreal Canadiens,discount hockey jersey, 1-0. It ends the Sabres' ridiculous streak of 14 straight games of giving up the opening tally. That was just three shy of the all-time record of 17 set by the 1974-75 Washington Capitals -- who finished with the worst record in league history at 8-67-5.

I last saw Kelley at the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame induction last month and I knew the end was near. Jim mentioned that he had lasted longer than most patients with pancreatic cancer. He talked about having a good run in our business. He was touched that NHL Commissioner Gary Bettman stopped by to say hello. Kelley had been critical of Bettman's decisions. Clearly,mlb replica jerseys, Kelley seemed to have a sense of pride that Bettman respected him enough not to take it personally.

There are two more tributes today to late News columnist Jim Kelley,ccm hockey jersey, written by some of those who knew him best.

It's the first lead the Sabres have had in regulation since Oct. 26 at Florida -- 487 minutes and 59 seconds ago.

Forget about the absence of Daniel Briere and Chris Drury. There is no excuse for the kind of talent on this Buffalo team to be associated with a sad-sack group like the '74-75 Capitals or to go more than eight games without leading. Let's see if the goal snaps this team out of its doldrums.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. ¶ Bragging legal rights and a happy housewarming are throughout the going to be the line.

AP Photo/Patrick SemanskyWith a depleted backfield, Reggie Bush might take a lot more handoffs than usual in the playoffs.If you go by record or reputation, you can look at Saturday's playoff game and say the New Orleans Saints should be able to win with one arm tied behind their back.

But this could be the one game where the Saints use Bush almost exclusively as a running back because they really don't have many other choices.

Neither is an exceptionally big back and neither is known as a blocker. Jones,nfl wholesale jersey, who was signed by New Orleans this year after three mostly disappointing seasons in Seattle, hasn't done much with the Saints. Ivory vaulted over Jones on the depth chart. In a backup role, Jones has carried 48 times for 193 yards and caught 17 passes for 59 yards. He has not scored a touchdown.

Even when Bush and Thomas were hurt early in the year, New Orleans coach Sean Payton made it a point not to abandon the running game completely. Even Brees needs help and balance, giants football jersey, design a hockey jersey, and the Saints will have to turn to some unusual suspects to provide at least some threat of a running game.

“We’ve gone through this before and really it’s not uncommon, make your own hockey jersey, ohio state football jersey,” Payton said. “It’s more of the norm and making sure that through preparation that the players that maybe haven’t played more significant roles at one point or another are now ready to play those roles. More than anything else, I think it’s the preparation and the teaching and the coaching that goes on. The players work week-to-week regardless of what their status might be that week, nfl jersey wholesalers, and it’s understanding that all of these guys are on hand and ready to contribute.”

They’re heading into Seattle’s Qwest Field without running backs Chris Ivory and Pierre Thomas. Both were placed on injured reserve this week. Ivory has a foot injury that will require surgery. Thomas has an ankle injury that kept him out much of the season and finally sidelined him after a brief, but promising, dog football jersey, late-season comeback.

As good as Brees is, though, nfl jersey, that’s a lot to ask. Qwest Field is known as one of the league’s loudest outdoor venues, and weather frequently can be a factor. Scratch the running game out of New Orleans’ offense, leaked nike nfl uniforms, and Seattle’s defense simply will load up against the pass.

We’ll see if Sando took the hint when his MVP Watch comes out tomorrow. But my early indications are you probably will see White’s name on the list this week.

The Saints have used Bush basically as a hybrid throughout his career. On Saturday, they might have to ask him to be just a running back.

The Saints might use Jones as a blocker, but it’s not likely they’ll suddenly put the entire running game in his hands. That’s why Bush could be the wild card in this game.

The Saints aren’t going to suddenly hand the ball to Bush 25 times on Saturday, but it’s pretty safe to assume he’ll get more than seven carries. Jones probably will get more carries than usual, and Wynn and/or Bell could end up handling a few carries.

But he was healthy for the postseason, custom hockey jerseys, and the Saints unleashed him. Bush averaged 6.9 yards per carry in the postseason and was at his best in a divisional round victory against Arizona in which he ran for 84 yards, nike and nfl, including a 46-yard touchdown run. Bush also returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown.

At least one of them will be active Saturday, custom football jersey, but it probably will be only as a third running back. That leaves Bush and Jones as New Orleans’ two best options in the running game and, as the only two backs with much experience, official nfl jersey, they’ll also be needed in the passing game.

On the surface, Ivory and Thomas aren’t superstars, cheap nfl jersey, but they were important cogs in an offense that’s known more for the passing game than the running game. Thomas was the closest thing to a complete running back the Saints had during last season’s Super Bowl run. With Thomas and Reggie Bush injured early in the season, Ivory, customize your own nfl jersey, an undrafted rookie free agent, stepped up and was the team’s leading rusher during the regular season.

Although Bush finished the regular season with just 36 carries for 150 yards, there is a precedent for his stepping up in the postseason. That’s what happened last season as the Saints won the Super Bowl. The Saints were cautious with Bush, who was dealing with a knee injury most of the regular season.

The No. 2 overall pick in the 2006 draft, Bush never has been the type of running back to handle 20 or 25 carries a game. Instead, he's been used in tandem, first with Deuce McAllister, then with Thomas and most recently with Ivory. Bush has been part running back, part wide receiver and part return man throughout his career.

That might be exactly what the Saints have to do.

"I thought he played well last week," Payton said. "He's healthy and is doing well. Coming back off of the injury, he's fully recovered now and I thought the carries and the touches he had last week were encouraging."

While stranded in the Atlanta airport due to lightning Monday morning, I reached out to Sando via e-mail. Mike and I have been friends for a long time and we talk pretty openly. With Mike, I didn't feel the need to do a lot of fancy lobbying. The e-mail said something like, "Hey, get Roddy White on your MVP Watch this week or I'll start handing out your cell number to Atlanta fans".

What the Saints have on hand is a unique collection of running backs, all with different strengths and weaknesses. They have Bush, Julius Jones, DeShawn Wynn and Joique Bell. Wynn and Bell were signed this week to fill the roster spots of Thomas and Ivory. Wynn had a brief stint with the Saints this season, and Bell was signed off Philadelphia's practice squad.

Bush missed eight games earlier this season with a broken leg, and the Saints have gradually worked him back into the rotation. But it might be time to take the limitations off Bush, and there were some encouraging signs in the regular-season finale against Tampa Bay. Bush had season highs with 70 rushing yards on nine carries.

In recent weeks, opponents have been trying to beat the Saints by blitzing Brees frequently. That strategy worked well for Baltimore and Tampa Bay, and you can bet the Seahawks have studied film of those games closely.

Every Wednesday, NFC West colleague Mike Sando does a league-wide MVP Watch. Here's his post from last week, in which Atlanta wide receiver Roddy White didn't make the list of 10.

Quarterback Drew Brees might be good enough to put the team on his back and simply use the passing game to get by the 7-9 Seahawks, who are in the playoffs only because they were slightly less mediocre than the rest of the teams in the NFC West.

Still, the Saints were pairing Bush with a healthy Thomas throughout the postseason, and Bush never got more than seven carries in a game.

"The protections are the big issue," Payton said.

"We just have to package him the right way and look at the snaps and what we're trying to do when we put him in that position," Payton said.
