Otto Greule Jr/Getty Images Marshawn Lynch and the Seahawks running through the Saints in the postseason may have helped silence the critics who said a 7-9 team shouldn't be hosting a playoff game. The disgust was palpable when James Carville's favorite division dared to offer up a 2010 champion with a losing record.

"Has there ever been a better argument for the NFL to switch to a seeded-tournament postseason?" ESPN's Gregg Easterbrook asked.

Atlanta Falcons president Rich McKay, discount nfl jerseys, longtime chairman of the NFL's competition committee, promoted discussion along those lines even during the regular season, before the Seattle Seahawks emerged with a 7-9 record and a home game against New Orleans in the wild-card round.

But when NFL owners held their annual spring meeting to discuss league business this week, scotland football jersey, nike nfl pro combat, re-seeding the playoffs wasn't even up for discussion. The issue has less momentum now than it did two years ago, well before Seattle became the first division winner in league history with a losing record.

What happened?

The Seahawks upset the Saints in the wild-card round, for starters. The game featured nearly flawless quarterback play from Matt Hasselbeck and one of the most memorable touchdown runs in league history, regular season or otherwise. When Seattle's Marshawn Lynch eluded or ran through eight potential tackles on his way to a 67-yard touchdown, custom nfl jersey, he also trampled the notion, practice hockey jersey, for now, that a 7-9 team had no business hosting a playoff game or appearing in the postseason at all.

"I think Seattle winning probably had an effect on people, yeah, hockey jersey builder, nhl hockey jersey," New York Giants owner John Mara said from the NFL owners meeting. "If there was any sentiment to change it, cheap nfl jerseys, maybe there is not. But that is not even something we discussed at the competition committee this year. It never even came up."

Mara was a voice for re-seeding even before his team missed the postseason with a 10-6 record this past season. Tampa Bay also missed the playoffs at 10-6. The Giants and Bucs defeated the Seahawks by a combined 79-23 margin this season, but the seeding system left them on the outside when playoff games kicked off in January.

"I've always felt that was something we ought to look at," Mara said. "I still think if you win your division, is nike taking over the nfl, you should be in the playoffs, kids nhl jerseys, but I personally believe the teams with the better records ought to have the home games. I don't think I'm in the majority on that opinion."

Indeed, the coaches, custom nhl jerseys, football jersey, owners and executives I polled this week came down strongly against any system sending a division champion on the road to open the playoffs. They would rather endure what happened with Seattle than have their own teams head onto the road as division champions.

"We want to put an emphasis on winning your division," Green Bay Packers president Mark Murphy said. "There's still a strong feeling that if you win a division, you should get a home game. Our fans expect that and like that."

The league has devalued division games in other ways over the past 30-plus years.

Thirty-five years ago, tcu football jersey, teams played as many as eight division games in a 14-game season, hockey jerseys cheap, new nfl nike uniforms, depending on how many teams were in a division.

"So, you won the division championship, you earned it, nhl jersey size chart," McKay said. "Today, going to four-team divisions and a 16-game schedule, nhl practice jerseys, we're at a little different place with respect to the number of division games versus the number of regular-season games. That is where the push came a couple years ago."

Had a straight seeding system been in place for 2010, neither the Seahawks nor St. Louis Rams would have had anything on the line when they played in Week 17. Both would have been eliminated from the playoffs. Under a modified seeding system, the NFC West champion would have headed onto the road for the playoffs (it's tough to say where, exactly, nfl jersey wholesale, nfl jerseys cheap, nfl jersey shop, because some teams would have approached the final weeks differently, cheap hockey jersey, affecting records).

The existing system guaranteed a home playoff game for the winner of that Rams-Seahawks game.

"Trying to keep as many late-season games relevant as you can was the other side of the push for re-seeding, edmonton oilers hockey jersey," McKay said. "And one of the ways to do that is, cheap authentic nfl jerseys, don't let people know where they are going to go. Let the seeding continue to work itself out other than the top two seeds. Not enough support. Will it come back some day? Probably. I am not sure it will be next year, replica hockey jerseys, toddler hockey jersey, but it will come back."

And it will face the same strong resistance it met this time around. If McKay and Mara couldn't gain any traction on the issue after Seattle made history as a 7-9 division champion, nfl all star jersey, it's tough to imagine this issue going anywhere in the near future.

"I just think winning your division is important, fighting sioux hockey jersey, kids football jerseys," Carolina Panthers general manager Marty Hurney said. "That means something. I think that's where it starts. It's a good setup."

Arizona Cardinals coach Ken Whisenhunt argued passionately for the current system. His team played home games as a 9-7 team in 2008 and as a 10-6 team one year later. The Cardinals won wild-card playoff games at home both years, nike football jerseys 2012, and both times they did it against teams with superior records. The 2008 Cardinals advanced to the Super Bowl after beating a 9-6-1 Philadelphia Eagles team in the NFC Championship Game at University of Phoenix Stadium. Again, nike nfl uniform, customize hockey jersey, their status as division champs gave them the edge.

"For me, it's tough to judge teams evenly that aren't in the same division because you never know about schedules, create a hockey jersey, nfl jersey history," Whisenhunt said. "Let's just talk about us as a West Coast team. Let's go back to 2008. Philadelphia did not play a game out of the Eastern time zone after Nov. 15, whereas we played six games with more than a two time-zone change that year. So, how can you compare two teams that have similar records or even compare their records based on variables that aren't the same?"

As a player for the Atlanta Falcons, worst nfl jerseys, Whisenhunt regularly traveled long distances for division games against the San Francisco 49ers and Los Angeles Rams in the old NFC West. He said traveling west to east for games is much tougher on the body than traveling east to west.

"It's easy to say this team is better than this team because its record is better, cool nfl jerseys, custom hockey jersey, but the reason that you have divisions is so that those four teams will have an equal footing as far as the conditions that they face," Whisenhunt said. "I've noticed through the years, they talk about Seattle traveling 30-some thousand miles during the year. How do you compare their travel schedule or what they are being forced to do? To me, nfl jerseys, plain football jersey, the only way that you can have an even comparison of those teams is within the division."

The travel angle resonates on the West Coast, vintage hockey jerseys, nike nfl Jerseys 2012, nfl jersey shop, but not at the league level. Niners president Jed York is among those who have complained about 10 a.m. PT kickoffs, and we discussed the subject again at this league meeting. The league has been unsympathetic and isn't likely to change its stance.

The seeding system also appears unflinching.

"Maybe this wasn't the year to propose any type of changes [amid larger labor issues], hockey jersey design, nike nfl 2012 uniforms, 2012 nike nfl jerseys, team usa hockey jersey," McKay said. "Maybe that is why we only had five rule changes being proposed. It didn't seem like the membership had an appetite, so let's put that in the background and wait." "Will the Kansas City Chiefs put in a claim on Kyle Orton?"

We will find out Wednesday. I think it's a possibility. In the past few hours since Denver waived the quarterback, reebok nhl jersey, hockey jerseys cheap, I spoke to several people who believe the Chiefs will make a claim.

There are reasons why Kansas City could claim Orton. It could use a veteran signal-caller, it could absorb the cap hit it would take to get Orton and it is just two games out of the AFC West race.

If the 4-6 Chiefs still think they can make a run at the playoffs, they might — particularly given that they have the toughest remaining schedule in the league — be inclined to turn the offense over to Orton rather than stick with the inexperienced Tyler Palko, nfl giants jersey, who made his first NFL start in the Chiefs' 34-3 loss at New England on Monday night. Starter Matt Cassel is out for the season with a broken hand. Palko's backup is rookie Ricky Stanzi.

If the Chiefs want Orton, hockey jerseys custom, nike nfl football uniforms, they might be able to get him. Chicago has been mentioned as a landing spot for Orton — who was traded to Denver by the Bears in the Jay Cutler deal of 2009 — because Cutler is out for several weeks. The Chiefs have waiver priority over the Bears because they have a worse record. However, olympic hockey jerseys, nfl saints jersey, if a team like the Colts (who don't have much cap room) or Redskins want Orton, the Chiefs would be blocked.

Still, there is no guarantee Kansas City will consider Orton. It could be interested in seeing what Palko — and maybe even Stanzi — can do with Cassel out. Still, hockey jersey designer, nike 2012 nfl, if the Chiefs want a veteran, nfl nike jerseys 2012, 2012 nike nfl, Orton presents an interesting option.

If the Chiefs do claim Orton, nfl nike uniforms, it would setup an intriguing Week 17 battle in Denver between the two teams. We'll find out Wednesday if that juicy matchup comes to fruition.

BOSTON The final roster moves at managers Mike Scioscia plus Terry Francona were distant extra damaging to the underdog Los Angeles Angels, who lost Bartolo Colon to a sore shoulder plus Gary Matthews Jr,nike nfl jerseys leaked.to a sore knee, than to the Boston Red Sox, who left off Tim Wakefield for of a sore behind,nfl jersey sizes.

In the short term,make your own football jersey, the active Matthews is accessory familiar with Fenway Park's quirky outfield, having spent five-plus years in the American League plus played 27 games in Boston. So, the Angels' little ball got even littler.

As as his pitching staff, Scioscia initially opted as Colon's power arm plus postseason know-how. Instead, Colon, a Cy Young Award winner two seasons ago seems predestined as the free-agent mall as a high-risk signing, based aboard his recurrent arm elbow shoulder issues.

Lackey conquered the AL ERA caption three.01 plus Beckett led the union in wins (20). According to Stats LLC's Aaron Charlton, the leaders of those two categories have not faced off in a playoff game since divisional play began in 1969.
